

WHY HOST AN OBSERVER?

AN INVITATION TO FOR-PURPOSE BOARDS

The Observership Program is a powerful tool to engage talented emerging community leaders.

In hosting an Observer, your board will participate in a unique, proven, professional development and learning program with tangible outcomes in leadership development, approaches to decision-making, strategic thinking and planning and collaboration, while injecting fresh and diverse perspectives into your boardroom, engaging new people in the work of your organisation and contributing to the development of the next generation of directors.

The Program provides a pathway for talented professionals to gain practical boardroom experience while participating in a comprehensive governance training program supported by Program partners, the Australian Institute of Company Directors and The Ethics Centre.
